THIS IS THE GIFTS FOR THE KING EDITION

In an unusual response, testimonies, scripture verses, and money have been coming from our friends in many states as gifts for the King. The special service and an adjourned meeting were held on December fifteenth, but additional friends continue to respond, even after the second adjourned meeting of the fourth of January. A letter telling of the service has been sent to all participants. In this issue of the NEWSETTE we seek to further share the blessings by including a selection of testimonies and scripture verses. This is also our way of expressing appreciation for the spiritual and material blessings that we have received. We much regret that space will not permit the inclusion of all responses.

STUDENT TESTIMONIALS

We praise the Lord for bringing us to Bryan, and supplying our need. We have come to depend on Him for everything. II Cor. 12:9.—(A Married Couple).

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" Ps. 133:1.

I praise the Lord for Bryan.

"I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God who loved me, and gave himself for me." Gal. 2:20. (This verse has become a part of me in a more real way.)

May it be used wholly for the glory of our King in aiding Bryan grow. —(A Married Couple)

The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad." Ps. 126:3, Praise His glorious name! —(Two Sisters)

Praise be to God for His unspeakable gift to us who were so undeserving. (II Cor. 9:15)

How much I can praise the Lord for the blessing I've received from Bryan since I've been here! Isa. 41:13.

"Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." Phil. 1:6.—(A Married Couple)

I will continue to pray for the M. S. M. as I have been doing.

"O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past finding out!" Rom. 11:33.

Continued on Page 2

FOUR MAKE WHO'S WHO

Elected by members of the faculty on the basis of character, scholastic standing, leadership ability, and Christian testimony, the following seniors were accorded the honor of being listed in the 1949 edition of "WHO'S WHO among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Reading left to right: Jane Button, Evans City, Pennsylvania; Josephine Jenkins, New Castle, Pennsylvania; Henry Moeller, Mason City, Iowa; and Glair Brickel, Kittman, Ohio.

SOPHOMORES PRESENT PROJECT

Just in time for initial use at the Gifts-to-the-King Service, the sophomores presented to the University a beautiful soft green carpet for the chapel platform. Of the best obtainable quality, the carpet adds both quietness and beauty to the chapel and promises many years of service to the Bryan Family. The presentation was made by U. J. Beecher and acknowledged by President Rudd at the opening of the service.

Dean's List Published

Dean's List honors for the Fall Quarter went to four who have been known to win the same honor one or more times before. With a general average 2.700, Henry Moeller, senior, Mason City, Iowa, leads the list, followed closely by Carl Wonderly, sophomore, Mt. Lake Park, Md., average 2.617; Charles Taber, sophomore, Allentown, Penna., average 2.588; and Leonard Mezner, sophomore, Cleveland, Ohio.

Those making the Honor List, which requires that one be in the upper 10% of the student body, were: Marjorie Miller, Jane Button, Janet Norcogy, Ian Hay, Gordon Carlson, Norma Kones, Robert Murphy, Laurine Kolderup, Sue Hawthorne, Lester Farringdon, Jacquelyn Oakley, Josephine Jenkins, Donald Oakley, Rebecca Craig, Othel Sullivan, and Thomas Taylor.

STAFF TESTIMONIALS

But we see Jesus who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of god should taste death for every man." Heb. 2:9.

"Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ." II Cor. 2:14.

In appreciation and love to Him for His kindness and great love for Bryan and Bryan's family.

"But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way." I Cor. 12:31.
Echos From Former Students and Graduates

Alabama
My gift of gold to Bryan could not begin to equal the gift of frankincense which Bryan has given to me. The sweet fragrance of Bryan memories still serve to call me back to God and to service in His name.

I am grateful to the Lord for leading me to Bryan. May He continue to bless in the days to come.

Arizona
Enclosed is a small token of my appreciation to God for leading me to Bryan University, which is one of His Guiding Stars to a greater life of service for many young men and women. The promise of receiving my needs when He led me to Bryan was Matt. 7:11. May this verse be a blessing to you.

Florida
I often think of my good days at Bryan and thank God always that I spent my first year in college at Bryan. It is schools like Bryan that build character and soul. Later I finished at a very worldly college, but was able to live the kind of life that Jesus would have led had not given to us, the Lord Jesus Christ, is that I was one of the privileged to attend such a school. My my is Romans 8:32. "He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?"

Ohio
We are happy to see the spiritual growth at Bryan. May the Lord continue to bless us. We also rejoice with you in the addition of the chapel on the campus and the new organ. I Cor. 13:2: "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then I know even as also I know."

New Jersey
I would like to praise my Lord for His faithfulness, and for the fact that as He is my Shepherd He is leading me into fields of service. Each day Bryan grows more precious to me and I thank Him continually that I was one of the privileged to attend such a school. My my is Romans 8:32. "He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?"

Oklahoma
He left His heavenly home above, and pray that His richest blessings may be bestowed upon all there.

New York
I would like to praise my Lord for His faithfulness, and for the fact that as He is my Shepherd He is leading me into fields of service. Each day Bryan grows more precious to me and I thank Him continually that I was one of the privileged to attend such a school. My my is Romans 8:32. "He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?"

Oregon
We are happy to see the spiritual growth at Bryan. May the Lord continue to bless us. We also rejoice with you in the addition of the chapel on the campus and the new organ. I Cor. 13:2: "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then I know even as also I know."

Pennsylvania
Enclosed is a small token of my appreciation to God for leading me to Bryan University, which is one of His Guiding Stars to a greater life of service for many young men and women. The promise of receiving my needs when He led me to Bryan was Matt. 7:11. May this verse be a blessing to you.

Tennessee
I would like to praise my Lord for His faithfulness, and for the fact that as He is my Shepherd He is leading me into fields of service. Each day Bryan grows more precious to me and I thank Him continually that I was one of the privileged to attend such a school. My my is Romans 8:32. "He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?"

Texas
This past year we have found Psalms 16:8, 9 very precious verses. The Lord before us is such a stabilizing encouragement. Our joy is in Him. "I have set the Lord always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope." Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for ever more." Psalms 16:8, 9, 11.

Virginia
He left His heavenly home above, giving His all for me and for all the world. My praise and prayer for Bryan is daily. May the riches of His grace be experienced on the campus. It is always good to hear of the forward advance there. "Thus saith the Lord, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the Lord thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldst go." Isa. 48:17.

STUDENTS ATTEND CONFERENCE
Bryan was an honor to represent at the recent Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship's second Foreign Missions Fellowship convention at the state University, at Urbana, Illinois. Students from Bryan were among the sixteen hundred other students from Canada and the United States who were Ian Hay and William Caraway.

WANT THE SINGERS?
Plans are under way to send two groups of Gospel Singers out during the summer months, a ladies' quartette to the East, a male quartet to the West. Churches, Youth for Christ groups, or conferences wanting the service of one of these groups should write the University at once for further information.

Continued from Page 1

I thank God that He saw fit to reach down into this world with His marvelous grace and save me. God is still able.

The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in Him. Nah. 1:7.

I praise God for the opportunity that He has given me to come here to Bryan to study in preparation for His service. I am willing to do anything that I can to support M. S. M., and I will continue to uphold it in prayer. I Pet. 5:7.

I thank the Lord that I have the privilege of attending Bryan University. And I wish to use this as a token of my great appreciation. Phil. 2:16.

Brother Schmeiser's interpretation of Song of Solomon 1:5 has thrilled my soul many times since our Bible Conference: "I am black," (says the bride), "... but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem" (says the bridegroom).

"... as the tents of Kedar" (says the bride) "... as the curtains of Solomon" (echoes the bridegroom).

Praise His name! He loves us in spite of ourselves and NEVER fails to answer our prayers and supply our every need. "Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it." I Thess. 5:24. By His grace and for His glory.

I praise the Lord for the way He has blessed Bryan and wish to see Him continue to work at Bryan. "Set, your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead and your life is hid with Christ in God." Col. 3:2-3.

The amount of this gift doesn't even hint at what our blessed Lord has given to us here at Bryan. We earnestly desire that He be pleased with the testimony of Bryan. We pray that every year from the finished-product end of this educational project plant there will flow a pulse of Spirit-filled, Spirit-trained love-slaves of God through Christ Jesus. —(A Couple of Students).

GOING CRAZY FROM READING THE SCRIPTURE?
Here is my gift of myrrh: "For with myrrh not gaven us the spirit of fear; but of power, and love, and of a sound mind." (II Tim. 1:7.)

When people tell me I will go crazy reading the Scriptures anymore, then I quote this verse. It quiets them and quiets me.

Sincerely in Christ, our Saviour, ANONYMOUS.
AGED FRIENDS—over 90—WRITE
Dear Sir and Brother in Christ:
Got out at 3:30 a.m. and will say
Good Morning . . . and will thank you for the cordial invitation to the gathering on "Bryan Hill"! Sorry not to be with you, but will be thinking of you here in my home and take time to recall the many precious moments spent with the youth of my time, who have been called to their reward years ago. At my time in life we feel alone when with a company of young people, and at times we wonder whether we are appreciated . . . . Have many blessings to thank for than can be on my mind this morning,
but I am especially thankful that my hearing seems perfect . . . . We have very good programs on the air
each morning, beginning at 6:00 a.m.,
when we have religious programs until after 9:00 a.m.
Hope you get this in time and not too late.
MRS. AMELIA A. McCLINTOCK,
My Dear Dr. Rudd:
I wish I could send a worthy gift
for our King, but I can't just now.
My husband is preparing for the (said, "I come quickly." This verse, Rev. 3:11, is a great comfort
and blessing to us.
I love Bryan College and all it stands for. You may remember that my birthday is also on March 19th
(Mr. Bryan's birthday), at which time
I will be 91 years old. May God's rich blessing rest on you all.
F. MARY F. SEYMOUR
P.S.—I just remembered that I had this one dollar bill given to me for Christmas. Surely, I could give it for the King.
A TESTIMONY FOR THE LORD
From a Friend of the University
Rev. James Richmond passed away on Jan. 12, 1947, after only one and a half days in bed, at the age of 93 years.
Up to the evening before his illness,
he had been here and there on errands, on busses, in stores—everywhere, as he had been in the past year
and old of Jesus, who loved them, and gave Himself for them.
He talked with many service men on the street, and with all "kinds and conditions of men" everywhere—bakers, garbage men, postmen, paper
boys, agents, workmen—with all who came to our home, with rich and poor, with educated and uneducated—he had to give the Good News of Jesus
the Saviour, the only "way," How he loved the children. And they loved him, running to him on the street, coming often to our home. They would play with us or by themselves around our dining room table, bring-ning their toys, putting some of their dollies for him to shake hands with, playing (?) on our piano, and—best of all—learning the eight Christian songs that Father and I taught them, "Jesus Loves Me," and so on.
They . . . loved him, and their parents loved him. He was often in their hearts through times of sorrow or special joy. Never would he turn away a little child, however weary or busy he might be.

Continued on Page 4

AGED FRIENDS—over 90—WRITE
Dear Sir and Brother in Christ:
Got out at 3:30 a.m. and will say
Good Morning . . . and will thank you for the cordial invitation to the gathering on "Bryan Hill"! Sorry not to be with you, but will be thinking of you here in my home and take time to recall the many precious moments spent with the youth of my time, who have been called to their reward years ago. At my time in life we feel alone when with a company of young people, and at times we wonder whether we are appreciated . . . . Have many blessings to thank for than can be on my mind this morning,
but I am especially thankful that my hearing seems perfect . . . . We have very good programs on the air
each morning, beginning at 6:00 a.m.,
when we have religious programs until after 9:00 a.m.
Hope you get this in time and not
too late.
MRS. AMELIA A. McCLINTOCK,
My Dear Dr. Rudd:
I wish I could send a worthy gift
for our King, but I can't just now.
My husband is preparing for the
(said, "I come quickly." This verse, Rev. 3:11, is a great comfort
and blessing to us.
I love Bryan College and all it stands for. You may remember that my birthday is also on March 19th
(Mr. Bryan's birthday), at which time
I will be 91 years old. May God's rich blessing rest on you all.
F. MARY F. SEYMOUR
P.S.—I just remembered that I had
this one dollar bill given to me for Christmas. Surely, I could give it for the King.
A TESTIMONY FOR THE LORD
From a Friend of the University
Rev. James Richmond passed away
on Jan. 12, 1947, after only one and a half days in bed, at the age of 93 years.
Up to the evening before his illness,
he had been here and there on errands, on busses, in stores—everywhere, as he had been in the past year
and old of Jesus, who loved them, and gave Himself for them.
He talked with many service men
on the street, and with all "kinds and
conditions of men" everywhere—bakers,
garbage men, postmen, paper
boys, agents, workmen—with all who came to our home, with rich and poor,
with educated and uneducated—he had to give the Good News of Jesus
the Saviour, the only "way," How
he loved the children. And they loved
him, running to him on the street,
coming often to our home. They would play with us or by themselves
around our dining room table, bring-ning their toys, putting some of their dollies for him to shake hands with, playing (?) on our piano, and—best of all—learning the eight Christian songs that Father and I taught
them, "Jesus Loves Me," and so on.
They . . . loved him, and their parents loved him. He was often in their hearts through times of sorrow or special joy. Never would he turn away a little child, however weary or busy he might be.

Continued on Page 4

Florida
May you continue to grow and prosper in the King's work.

Illinois
The Lord has helped in 1948 and we are glad to help you folks. We are proud to have our daughter attendin Bryan. "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoved, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." I Cor. 15:58.

Indiana
We praise God for what Bryan has meant to Nita Mae and Ross. May it continue to be a blessing to young people and may all be soul winners
For His glory. Psa. 120:3.

Kentucky
"Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift." We praise the Lord, too, for all those who love Him at Bryan University. May He send you more of a mighty testimony for Him! "Our life is but a little holding lent to do a mighty work. We are one with heaven and the stars when it is spent to do God's will."

Ohio
It is a joy to know there is a place like Bryan University that wholly honors God. Our prayer is that it ever may be otherwise. Thank God for every member of the faculty.
We praise and thank our blessed Lord for making Bryan and all she stands for possible in these days of apostasy. Our prayer is that every need will be supplied and every one may remain true to her calling. Col.
2:2, 3.

Pennsylvania
Since our recent visit to Bryan we are asking the Lord to do the exceding abundant above all that you ask or think. "Faith honors God and God honors faith." We are very that the three years now our interest has steadily been growing in the activities and progress of Bryan University. This has come about through reading your literature and the presence of Wanda in your midst. Being fully persuaded that our Lord and Saviour is honored and pleased in the work you are doing, you have our prayers and wholehearted interest.

Tennessee
It is with joy and a heart filled with praise and thanksgiving for Bryan University and its wonderful staff of consecrated Christians, that I send my gifts for the King on this

Virginia
I send so thankful to Him for what Bryan has done for my boy. "In my distress I cried unto the Lord, and he heard me." Psa. 120:1.

West Virginia
You are doing a wonderful work for the Lord on Bryan Hill. May God bless every effort.

continues on Page 4

Continued on Page 4

continued on Page 4
Gifts to Date ... $30,726.33

Total Gifts for Dec ...... $ 5,496.73
Other 2,402.10
Gifts for the King 2,739.34
M. S. M ..$ 575.29

OPERATING / BUILDING FUND

(Each coin represents $250.00)

Judge A. Rudd, LLB...Editor-in-Chief
D. W. Ryther...Managing Editor
Lloyd E. Fish...Business Manager

Published and Printed Monthly by William Jennings Bryan University
Dayton, Tennessee

Entered as second-class matter, March 13, 1937, at the post office at Dayton, Tennessee, under the Act of August 24, 1912.

GIFTS FROM THE CHICKENS

Our master is writing for us, since we can only scratch. Nungessers dedicated our Sunday eggs to the Lord, so while they are out serving Him on the Lord's day, we do our share at home. We have smashed the previous daily record 11 out of 14 Sundays since we began to lay. We were scheduled to come into full production Nov. 19. During that month our Sunday percentage was 72, plus. For the month it was 68, plus. Glad to send a share to Bryan U. Merry Christmas and Prosperous New Year according to Joshua 1:8.

ANONYMOUS GIFTS

Our thanks for the following anonymous gifts, some with testimonies:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>No.</th>
<th>City</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2299</td>
<td>Derry, Penn.</td>
<td>$1.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2397</td>
<td>Dayton, Ohio</td>
<td>1.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2338</td>
<td>Newark 5, N. J</td>
<td>2.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2414</td>
<td>Chanute, Kansas</td>
<td>1.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2418</td>
<td>Neptune, N. J.</td>
<td>1.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2434</td>
<td>Duthis 3, Minn.</td>
<td>1.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2539</td>
<td>Carrolton, Ohio</td>
<td>1.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2540</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md.</td>
<td>1.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2561</td>
<td>Newark, N. J.</td>
<td>5.00</td>
</tr> </tbody>
</table>

Continued from Page 3

One and a half months before he was 93, he preached two Sundays in our church. Such tender, deeply spiritual sermons. His last text was his favorite: John 3:14-16, (He always stressed the fact that verses 14 and 15 must go with verse 16).

On his last Children's Day Sunday (in June) he received a little "Daily Food" book for perfect attendance at Sunday School for a year. He taught his adult Bible Class up to and on his last Sunday on earth. The following Sunday, at worship time, God took him quietly "Home."
The last song Father taught the little children was one he said he loved when he was a little boy. Of course, that made them eager to hear and learn it.

It was, "I Want to be an Angel, and with the Angels Stand ... I'll praise Him day and night."

And now he is having the great joy of seeing his Saviour face to face, and of praising "Him day and night."

and he has left on earth the many unsaved ones whom you and I must attend your school, but a rheumatic condition at 11 years of age turned into arthritis, and here I am at 28! But through your paper and letters I feel as though I knew you and love to help a little.

(CONTINUED FROM NEXT ISSUE)